

viviano e. aguilar

Viviano focuses his practice on litigation. After graduating from Tehachapi High School, Viviano earned his bachelor's degree from UCLA, and his J.D. from Loyola Law School, Los Angeles.

Viviano has successfully navigated a variety of commercial litigation matters including employment, trade secret, ADA, and business cases. Viviano is also part of the firm's wage and hour class-action defense division, and he has extensive experience representing employers before the various administrative law courts, such as the DLSE ("Labor Commissioner"), WCAB and OSHAB.

Viviano is a black-belt in brazilian jiu-jitsu, a martial art he has practiced for the last 13 years.

viviano e. aguilar
viviano@bbr.law

office: 661.864.7827
fax: 661.878.9797

5016 California Avenue Suite 3
Bakersfield, CA 93309

Bar Admissions

State Bar of California, 2015
U.S. District Court
Eastern District of California, 2016
Central District of California, 2017

Education

Bachelor of Arts
University of California at Los Angeles,
2007

Juris Doctor, Loyola Law School, Los Angeles, 2015

Practice Focus

Employment Litigation
Civi Litigation

Professional Associations and Leadership

CSU Bakersfield Pre-Law Advisory Committee, 2020-present
Kern County Bar Association, 2015-present
American Bar Association, 2012-present
Young Lawyers Section
Director, 2017-2020

Speaking Engagements

National Business Institute (NBI):
Human Resource Law from A to Z, January 2017
Human Resources Boot Camp – November 2018
BBR Employer Legal Solutions
Everything you ever wanted to know about PAGA, April 2018
What Dynamex means for independent contractors in California June 2018

Professional Experience

Belden Blaine Raytis, LLP, 2016-present
Parker, Kern, Nard & Wenzel, 2016

Business Lawyers for Business Owners